RFACA Learn to Fly Scholarship Competition 2017/2018

Two Scholarships are available to the value of $7700 each including GST. If your Club is GST-exempt for the CPL or Instructor Rating course then the amount is $7000 ex-GST for this prize.

1) One Scholarship is for an ab initio pilot:

- All entrants who fly a Trial Flight with an RFACA Member Organisation between the commencement of the assessment period 1 October 2017, and the closing date 21 February 2018, will be considered for nomination by that Organisation for an RFACA Learn to Fly Scholarship.
- PLEASE NOTE:
 - a. Each new student taking a Trial Flight MUST fill in the CONDITIONS FORM. (Refer to the Terms & Conditions form, and fill in the section at the bottom of the page).
 - b. A copy of the conditions of entry is given to the student and the Club MUST keep a copy.
 - c. An Assessment Form is to be filled in for each Trial Flight. This is a guide for the Club on the student's aptitude for flying.
 - d. Each Entrant MUST write a brief statement on why they wish to learn to fly.
 - e. At close of scholarship each Club Committee may nominate up to THREE candidates for the draw.

2) One Scholarship is available for pilots who have completed their PPL and wish to further their career in aviation:

- The funds are to go towards achieving a CPL or a Flying Instructor Rating.
- Entry to this is by written nomination by RFACA Member Clubs and Organisations. A maximum of THREE candidates may be nominated by each Club and Organisation for entry into the draw.
- Flying training must be done at Club or Organisation that nominates the winning candidate.

NB: Closing date of Competition is 21 February 2018 and nominations must be returned by email: rfaca@ozemail.com.au or to RFACA Office by 28 February 2018 to be included in the draw.
